| Q17. | Read the passage given below carefully and answer the following questions: The 'Cuban Missile Crisis' was a high point of what came to be known as the Cold War. The Cold was referred to the competitions, the tensions and a series of confrontations between the United States of America and the Soviet Union, backed by their respective allies. Fortunately, however, it never escalated into a 'hot war'. (a) Explain the meaning of 'hot war'. (b) Why was the 'Cuban Missile Crisis' considered as the high point of the Cold War? (c) "Ideological conflict was also a cause of the Cold War." How far do you agree with the statement? | 1+2+2=5 | | | | | | | | | | | | | | |

|------|--|---------|
| Ans. | (a) A full scale war actually being fought between two or more countries. (b)(i) Both the Superpowers were directly poised against each other for the first time due to the Cuban Missile Crisis. (ii) A war seemed imminent due to tension between the super powers. (c) The ideological conflict was the difference over the best and the most appropriate way of organising political, economic and social life all over the world. The US represented the ideology of Liberal democracy and Capitalism, while the USSR was committed to the ideology of socialism and communism. This divided the world into two blocs- eastern alliance and western alliance, preparing against one another, leading to arms race and creating an atmosphere of Cold War. | |
| Q18. | Read the passage given below carefully and answer the following questions: The Congress evolved from its origins in 1885 as a pressure group for the newly educated, professionals and commercial classes to a mass movement in the twentieth century. This laid the basis for its eventual transformation into a mass political party and its subsequent domination of the political system. Thus the Congress began as a party dominated by the English speaking, upper caste, upper middle class and urban elite. But with every Civil Disobedience Movement it launched, its social base widened. (a) What is meant by a pressure group? (b) Explain the reason for the Congress to be transformed into a rainbow-like social coalition by the time of Independence. (c) What made the Congress into a mass political party in the twentieth century? | 1+2+2=5 |
| Ans. | (a) An organisation that puts pressure on the government, directly or indirectly, to get its demands fulfilled. (b)(i) With every mass movement launched by the Congress Party its social base widened. (ii) It brought together diverse groups - industrialists, peasants, urban as well as rural dwellers, etc. as its members. (c) (i) It broadly represented India's diversity in terms of caste, class, religion and language and various interests. (ii) Its support base increased with every mass movement. Or any other relevant point. (Any Two) | |
| Q19. | Read the passage given below carefully and answer the following questions: The Janata Party made the 1977 elections into a referendum on the Emergency. Its election campaign was focused on the non-democratic character of the Congress rule and on the various excesses that took place during this period. In the backdrop of arrests of thousands of persons and the censorship of the Press, the public opinion was against the Congress. (a) What is meant by 'referendum'? (b) "Acts like arrests of thousands of persons and the censorship of the Press during the Emergency period were non-democratic". Do you agree with the statement? Justify your answer with one suitable argument for/against each act. (c) In spite of winning the 1977 elections with a thumping majority, why could the Janata Party remain in power only for a short period? Explain. | 1+2+2=5 |
| Ans. | (a) Referendum means to refer an important issue to the people for decision/verdict by general vote. (b) (i) Nearly one lakh eleven thousand people were arrested under Preventive Detention, but none of them were tried for anti-national activity. (ii) Newspapers were not allowed to publish articles without the prior approval of | |
